

Meet Me Now Price Plans

Monthly prices start from £17.50 depending on which price plan you take out

Team - Max no. meeting participants - 5

Designed for anyone who typically only needs to communicate with a small number of people. An example might be a sales executive that wants to have meetings that involve one or two customer contacts plus the option to involve a colleague at head office if required.

Group - Max no. meeting participants - 15

Aimed at anyone who manages a dispersed group of people where they regularly need to communicate new information or deliver training. An example might be a regional sales manager who is looking for ways to cut down on the time and cost involved in bringing sales staff into a monthly meeting at head office.

Conference - Max no. meeting participants - 30

This plan is designed for anyone who wants deliver a presentation to a larger group of people. This would provide a web based alternative to the traditional seminar or conference format where delegates must travel to a specific venue. An example might be a company CEO who wants to deliver an annual business review presentation to their entire management team.

Corporate Options

Monthly prices start from £29.50 depending on which price plan you take out

Each of the above price plans is also available in an alternative corporate version which allows users to have a standard UK geographic number assigned for external voice access rather than an 0844 number.

You may choose this option to avoid the higher call costs incurred by company mobile users who wish to access the conference when out of the office. If you intend to have international participants, you may also find that 0844 numbers are not recognised in certain countries.

Upgrading for existing hosted VoIP customers

Any existing hosted VoIP user can have the Meet Me Now features added to their service. A monthly add-on subscription will be added to your account.

- In all cases the standard hosted VoIP service is included as part of the standalone Meet Me Now packages
- Max meeting length is limited to 4 hours after which a £10 charge will be made to the Chairperson account for each additional 4 hours or part thereof.
- CORPORATE PRODUCTS ONLY - An 0203 number is included in the price of the tariff. Customers may optionally request a geographic access number for any UK area code. The same process and charges apply here as with adding a geographic number to a standard hosted VoIP account.
